CAFR serves as guardian of academic freedom and rights for all members of this academic community. The committee met formally twice during the academic year.

In the Fall semester we met to finalize changes in the language of the authority to change a grade, including a complaint to CAFR and the Tenure Review Board (TRB) (the complainant may waive his/her right to confidentiality to allow CAFR and TRB to best serve the complainant's interests.)

CAFR met in the Spring semester to consider a request for membership on CAFR. We recommended that CAFR reduce its size from 5 to 4 with the following considerations:

1. At the time of election, at least two faculty members on CAFR must be tenured and one member is untenured.
2. That at CAFR's request, FEC will appoint temporary members for the following situations:
 - In the event that no tenured members with at least 5 years of experience are available/willing to take on the leadership role.

- In the event that a
